1. On 28 and 29 June 1950, officials of the East German Ministry of State Security were engaged in working on a "mobilization plan" for reliable Communists and police officers. The plan was to provide for the formation by the SED, from party cadres and schools, of a voluntary international brigade to be sent to Korea from the Schkeuditz airfield by way of Russia. Final approval of the project by the SED Politburo is said to be pending.
2. Other satellite states are expected to raise similar brigades for Korea.
